

L. BROOKS PATTERSON, OAKLAND COUNTY EXECUTIVE

Dear Veteran:

In honor of your service to our nation, Oakland County Executive L. Brooks Patterson and Oakland County Clerk/Register of Deeds Bill Bullard cordially invite you to attend a major announcement for the 73,000 veterans living in Oakland County.

On Thursday, May 10, 2012 at 10 a.m., Messrs. Patterson and Bullard will unveil Oakland County's new veteran identification card acknowledging those who have served in the armed services.

The patriotic ceremony will be held in the Board of Commissioners Auditorium, 1200 North Telegraph, in Pontiac. It will include a color guard, a beautiful rendition of our National Anthem, the Pledge of Allegiance, followed by inspirational words from Messrs. Patterson and Bullard and local veterans.

All veterans are welcome to wear their uniforms and ribbons to the ceremony. If you wish to attend, please notify David Mroz at the Oakland County Clerk's Office via email at mrozd@oakgov.com.
